

STUDY GUIDE QUESTIONS

FROM ORDINARY TO EXTRAORDINARY: SUCCESS STORIES FROM WOMEN INVESTING IN REAL ESTATE

PART 1

1. History is littered with periods of economic upheaval and uncertainty. What does the past teach us about the impacts of financial crises on economies?
2. Even in today's modern societies women can face cultural or demographic challenges to becoming financially independent. What experiences have you had that either demonstrate or refute this idea?

PART 2

1. Measuring success is different for everyone. What do you personally view as a measure of success, or a fulfilled life?
2. People come to Real Estate investing for different reasons. Understanding your 'WHY' helps you achieve fulfillment in life. What about Real Estate investing interests or inspires you? What is your Why?
3. Complete 7 Levels Deep Exercise on page 26.

PART 3

1. The chapters in this book amplify the voices of a diverse group of women from across Canada. Which authors' stories resonated with you and why?
2. Many women suffer from Imposter Syndrome where they feel they aren't qualified or suited to undertake certain challenges. Have you ever experienced Imposter Syndrome, and what strategies might you apply to banish it from your thinking?
3. Where are you now on your investing journey and what steps do you need to take to move toward your goals? As is discussed in the book, sort out your financing, create a budget, define your calls.

PART 4

1. Darlene, chose building seniors housing as a way to contribute to her community. Alisa chose Coliving/Cohousing projects. Cheri put her efforts into multi-family residential rentals. What need can you meet in your own community through Real Estate investing?

2. Women are well suited for collaboration and achieving great things together. What qualities do you think you share with other women that might form the basis for your team or tribe?
3. What action can you take TODAY, right now, to move you forward on your journey? Set a date, write it down, commit to it.
4. Take a picture of you with your study group and share your biggest breakthrough moment on facebook.com/wren4us

wren.club

info@wren.club